25 YEARS AGO

... the World's Fair was in full swing in Chicago; FDR was President; the Depression had ended and Clark Gable was the idol of the screen; "IT" was the big thing with the gals; Henry Ford was pushing V-8s and Supermarkets were just a dream away. This was the year that saw the beginning of Shoppers Markets. Some of those first people are still around—most are not. 25 years is a long time. Shoppers and its people have changed in many ways, but the good, friendly feeling that began many years ago in a little store will always remain. And because of our feeling toward you, our customers, you have permitted us to grow. They have been wonderful years—Thank You.
